All temporary professionals are StatGroup employees, not contractors and all multi-state tax filings are managed by StatGroup.

StatGroup eliminates the time, expense, and headaches associated with the hiring process. When you use StatGroup, you don't have to place ads, perform interviews, arrange background checks, or deal with internal time restrictions. Additionally, you don't have to repeat this process if a candidate does not work out.

Providence Hospital and Medical Centers

“Ms. Connie Andrews has gotten us through an extremely tough time... staff shortages and an overwhelming array of patients. Ms. Andrews and Ms. Ellen Valoria have proved to be an effective force. Their eagerness to fulfill our needs was their top priority, and dealing with such professional people made our task that much easier. I would have no hesitation contacting StatGroup should I require their services in the future.”
